ENJOY these SUMMER must-reads!

The WLLSU has decided to turn this newsletter page into a regular community reading list! At the end of each month, we will post a story on Instagram asking for your favourite books and authors, united by a certain important topic or theme.

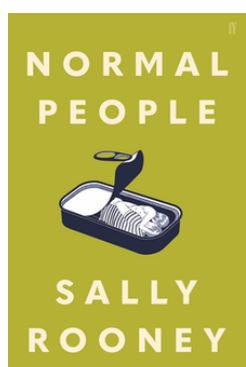

Our July Booklist is dedicated to the summer season! Summer is here and our members have shared some books that remind them of warm and sunny days. These books bring up special memories of road trips and important moments in the story associated with this time. What books remind you of summer? Share with us!

See you in August!

M I N G L E

with your WLL peers and get to know them closer!

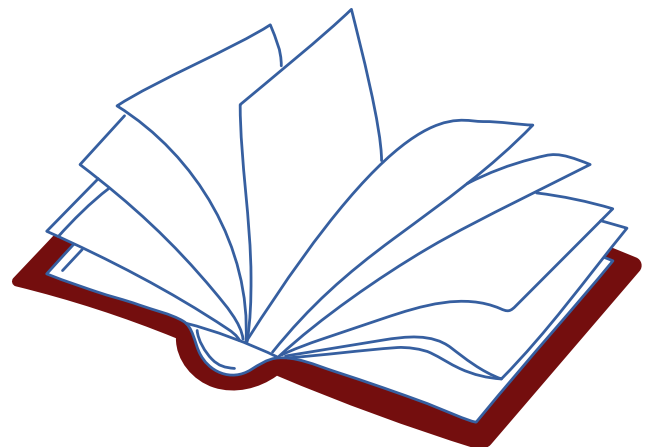

Hi! My name is Molly and I am in my third year completing a double degree in WLL and REM!

My favourite class in WLL has been WL 404: Literature and Translation with Professor Hande Gurses!

The best part of being a WLL student has been all the extracurriculars the department offers! I have been lucky enough to be a member of our union, a presenter at our annual student conference, and a editor for the WLL literary magazine!

My tip of the month:

Check out The Student Learning Commons through the library! The reading and learning peers can help you with your writing and study habits!

LEARN

fun language facts about one of our department's languages!

Italian:

THE LONGEST ITALIAN
WORD IS 30 LETTERS

psiconeuroendocrinoimmunologia,
meaning "Psycho Neuro Endocrine Immunology"
