World Literatures & Languages Film Festival

Our 1st WORLD LITERATURE MOVIE FESTIVAL is now accepting submissions for our Spring 2025 event: Re:Stage - Exits and Entrances. As an interdisciplinary event, we invite undergraduate students of all faculties to submit proposals exploring different perspectives on how art, literature, and other forms of cultural expression facilitate the flow of disparate ideas through the films: Argumento (2019), Muqin (2017), and Yamome (2018). Submissions from all departments will be treated with equal attention & confidentiality. A completed project is not needed at the time of proposal, only a short abstract or description of around 150 words explaining how your topic will address the festival theme and which specific movie helps you to help illustrate your thesis.
